FAIRFIELD CAMPUS SIGHTS at night or day, Spring or Winter, always portray a beautiful setting.

This man has caught each of us who have unsuccessfully made an effort to barrel past him and park our cars in the faculty lot.

Everyone found a place to spend time between classes. Last-minute studying, eating and socializing were the common between-class activities, but not always in that order.

FAIRFIELD

Stagmania !!

STAGMANIA returned to Fairfield University in full spirit this season. The renewed enthusiasm of the faithful was created by the Stags remarkable turnaround under rookie coach Mitch Buonaguro. The Stags, led by seniors Pat Yerina and Tony George, capped a 24-7 season by winning the MAAC Championship and gaining a post-season birth in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in team history.

ANOTHER SELLOUT !! Stag fans were packed to the rafters of Alumni Hall this season to witness the team's trip from last to first in the MAAC. Yerina and George went out winners in their senior year, George as the all-time leading Fairfield scorer.

EXIT

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you the most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child. I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Can We Talk?

Gorbachev and Reagan partake in some "Fireside Chat" during their summit talks in November. During that meeting these great leaders discussed the U.S.S.R. withdrawing its troops from Afghanistan, but only if that country remained under Soviet control. Other issues included the U.S. ultimately removing all its intermediate-range missiles from Western Europe and the cancellation of Star Wars. Talks came to a sudden halt in April when it was discovered that U.S. had continued nuclear testing.

You Say You Want A Revolution

When Phillipine President Ferdinand Marcos scheduled an election in February, he grossly underestimated the mass appeal of his housewife opponent, Corazon Acquino. As a result of an unpredicted victory, Acquino took the presidency of the Phillipines to revenge her husband's unlawful murder at the Manila airport and bring government back to the hands of the people. Question and skepticism rest with how effectively Acquino will lead her nation. Is it possible to alter both economically and socially, a state that has been manipulated by the tyranny of a dictator like Marcos?

TERRORISM When will it all end?

He's A Mad Dog

On March 23, 1986, a U.S. Navy task force began conducting "freedom of navigation" exercises in the disputed waters of the Gulf of Sidra off the coast of Libya. Libya in turn fired anti-aircraft missiles at American war planes. The U.S. responded by attacking a number of ships and a missile installation on the Libyan mainland.

Libya claimed that it shot down three American jets and that the U.S. had attempted but failed to bomb a single civilian ship. The U.S. reported that all Libyan missiles had missed their targets and that there were no American casualties. The U.S. had successfully hit two Libyan navy ships with an unknown number of casualties.

On April 14, the U.S. performed a series of air strikes on "terrorist centers". The decision came due to the bombing nine days earlier of a West Berlin discotheque in which an American serviceman and a Turkish woman were killed and more than 200 people wounded. Americans planes struck five Libyan bases, using bombers that took off from an American Air Base in Britain. Fifteen A-6 planes hit two targets near Benghazi and eighteen F-111 bombers that hit Tripoli, including the residence of Qaddafi. Subsequent terrorist attacks by Libya have been a bomb in A flight — 840 from Rome to Athens in which four passengers were killed as well as a terrorist attempt in London's Heathrow Airport.

In West Germany, bombs exploded in and around U.S. military installations killing three and injuring fifty people.

In June, Air India Boeing 747 carrying 329 passengers and crew members across the Atlantic, fell victim to a terrorist bomb.

Also in June, leftist guerillas opened fire on four San Salvador cafes, slaying 13 people, including 6 Americans.

In October, U.S. Navy F-14 Tomcat fighters accosted an Egyptian Boeing 737 and forced it to land in Sicily. Four Palestinians were arrested and tried following their hijacking of the Italian cruise liner Achille Lauro, and their killing of one American passenger, Leon Klinghoffer.

In December, four members from the PLO opened fire on passengers waiting to board an El Al flight, TWA and Pan Am counters at Rome's Leonardo da Vinci Airport. Five minutes later the firing ceased: 15 people dead, including three terrorists, and 74 wounded. Almost simultaneously, three PLO members ran the stairs at the Schwechat airport in Vienna opening fire with AK-47's. Passengers waiting to check in for El Al Flight 364 to Tel Aviv threw themselves on the floor. Security Guards returned fire but terrorists tossed three hand grenades injuring many.

Apartheid

Riots were an almost daily occurence in South Africa as blacks protested Apartheid. Here, a white man runs from a jeering group of stonethrowing blacks in downtown Johannesburg as widespread violence continued to breakout throughout the country. Fairfield University responded to the governments policy on Apartheid by divesting in South Africa.

A series of devastating earthquakes rumbled through Mexico City in September sending the death toll into the thousands. Few in the metropolitan area of 18 million escaped the effects of the first quake, which registered 8.1 on the Richter scale; or the second quake, which measured 7.5.

A Challenge Not Met

The Space Shuttle Challenger exploded only 74 seconds after take off at 11:38 a.m. from Cape Canaveral on January 28, 1986. All seven crew members were killed including Christa McAuliffe, a Concord, New Hampshire high school teacher selected by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to be the first "citizen observer" to ride the space shuttle. The apparent cause for the disaster was a flame from the right-hand solid fuel booster rocket which lead to the eventual explosion.

The Boss

In 1986 Bruce Springsteen was the undisputed Boss of rock 'n' roll. His "Born in the U.S.A." tour continued to attract sell out crowds in this country and abroad. Bruce broke millions of hearts across the nation by marrying Julie Ann Phillips from Oregon, thereby shattering the dreams of all Jersey Girls.

After winning the World Series, Royals pitcher Bret Saberhagen embraces third basemen George Brett after pitching a five-hitter to beat the St. Louis Cardinals. Saberhagen the winner of two Series games, was named as the Most Valuable Player in the series.

Chicago Bears Quarterback Jim McMahon and kicker Kevin Butler on the sidelines during Super Bowl XX. The Bears beat the New England Patriots 46-10. McMahon displays his famous headbands.

AIDS

Bob Geldof, rock musician, inspired and implemented a musical mobilization to aid starving people in Africa. The single record by British rock stars under the name "Band-Aid" raised $11 million. The Live Aid concert performed simultaneously in London and Philadelphia in July broadcast world-wide additionally raising $72 million. Geldof won the Nobel Peace Price for his efforts.

Inspired by Geldof's endeavors, the United States has initiated its own contributions to Africa and at home with "USA for Africa", Farm Aid, Hands Across America, and Fairfield's own fund raiser "Porch Aid".

FERRARO AT FAIRFIELD

Geraldine Ferraro, 1984 Vice-Presidential nominee for the Democratic ticket lead by Walter Mondale, spoke out against intolerance of women at Fairfield University in an Oak Room lecture. A three time Representative of the House from Queens, Ms. Ferraro became the first female to ever run on the Presidential ticket. She pointed out to the Oak Room crowd that her running was aimed at promoting women's rights and their equality with men. During her lecture, she criticized the Reagan administration for its stand on Women's rights and implored all listeners to carry on the progress of the feminist movement to further combat intolerance of women in the United States.

F.U.S.A. PRESIDENTS

Fairfield University students elected Michael Miller to succeed Jim English as the new student body president. English held that post as a senior for the entire academic year and enjoyed what onlookers term a "successful" presidency. President Miller hopes to improve upon the programming of events by F.U.S.A.

AUNTIE EM, AUNTIE EM!!!!!

HURRICANE GLORIA stormed into Fairfield but its impact was a mere bag of shells. The storm was powerful enough to knock out electricity on campus and cause the evacuation of nearly all beach residents. Cancelled classes triggered all-day partying and many "hurri-keg" impromptus. Beach dwellers sandbagged their shacks and left for higher ground, and free food was available at Seilers. Kegs under the moon, monopoly by candlelight and dancing in the dark were the newly adopted emergency activities.

NAUT CLOSES ITS DOORS

REOPENS AS THE "SEAGRAPE CAFE"

A Fairfield institution known as the Nautilus Cafe closed its doors to all student patrons and tragically altered the social pattern of those people who were part of the Naut's clientele. Thursday Night entertainment was relocated to the Stag-her and the Horseshoe and students had to settle for second best. Daily Naut visitors created F.U.B.A. to ease the shock of no Naut. This association planned daily beach parties for its members and the acrynym means Fairfield University Beach Association, or simply a Naut substitute. The building that once housed the Naut reopened in late May as the Seagrape, but first student reaction was a bit sour to the higher prices and disinfected atmosphere.

Drinking Age Change

In July, the drinking age was raised to twenty-one with a grandfather clause to allow those twenty year olds born before September 1 to imbibe alcoholic beverages. Fairfield reacted to the legislation by instituting red I.D.'s for those students of age and blue I.D.'s for those not of age. The quad became dry and discipline grew harsher. Oak Rooms no longer attracted crowds. Instead, recreation was sought at beach and townhouse parties. Hard to adjust to at first, Fairfield students learned to deal with the situation at hand.

Fairfield's Dictionary

To Maul — to score with a member of the opposite sex. Does anyone really know the real definition of this term? Use your imagination.
The Naut — a drinking establishment that has ceased to exist.
Blow off — to neglect to perform a duty; to find a course painfully easy.
BMA — Brief Meaningless Affair
Utile — a measure of satisfaction in intramural sports
Balooga — a team that enjoys being second best and is good at it; the sound one team player makes when she performs a certain act.
The Hogs — a group of males formerly residing on Regis ground who join together to terrorize the Fairfield campus with obnoxious pranks.
Chase — not a bank in New York but a drinking game which employs two quarters and two glasses chasing each other around the table.
Suck and Blow — a game played by passing cards around a group via the mouth.
Take it on the fly — to take a test without properly preparing for it.
Keg — A small metal container which contains pleasurable fluid.
Hung Over — the feeling derived because of drinking too much of the pleasureable fluid characterized by fatigue, headache, and nausea.
The Mayor — An individual who haunts the beach.
The Schmoo — the fix-it man at the townhouses.
Hacky Sack — a game played by passing a ball around with the knee
Super-D — a palace stocked with liquor
Awesome — a term used to describe just about anything
Northwest — the true name of Jogues
A Heart to Heart — a deep and meaningful conversation between two friends
Toga — a sheet contorted to wrap around the body in order to party
General — a person who makes their presence known everywhere on campus
False — an annoying response to a wrongful statement
Big Gulp — the 63[¢] antidote for a hang over.

DEDICATION

FATHER JOHN HIGGINS

In recognition and appreciation of his outstanding involvement with the students of Fairfield University, the Class of 1986 proudly dedicates the 1986 Manor to

REV. JOHN J. HIGGINS, S.J.

We thank him for being a true friend who has always shown concern for our welfare as Executive Assistant to the President and as our neighbor on campus. We respect him as a fine administrator and value the friendship we share.

The Senior class has matured in many ways by knowing him as a person whose life is an example for all. We hope that many classes in the future will experience and appreciate the unselfish service of Father John Higgins, our friend.

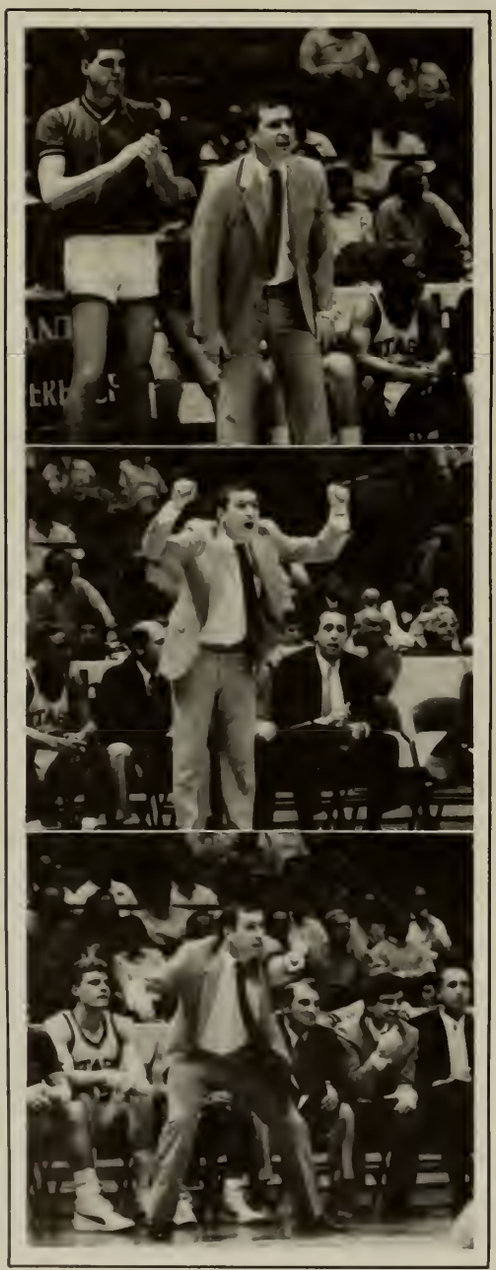
NEWS 12

A MAN NAMED



Mitch Buonaguro, in his rookie season as coach of the Fairfield Stags led the team to an appearance in the post season NCAA Tournament The Stags captured the MAAC Championship by defeating Holy Cross as the capstone to a 13-1 conference record and a record of 24 wins and 7 losses overall. Seniors Pat Yerina and Tony George sparked the tremendous turnaround of the Fairfield Basketball program. Only four teams in the past 19 years have gone from last in their conference to first place in one season. That accomplishment is certainly credited to the coaching of Mitch Buonaguro and his winning tradition. Buonaguro assisted Rollie Massimino at Villanova the previous season in winning the National Championship. Stagmania was reborn this past season. Many of the fans claimed that Mitch Buonaguro was God. The rational fan knew that the intense training program designed for each athlete improved their strength, endurance and performance. Of course, all fans recognized and appreciated the contributions of a man named Mitch.

The Cinderella Stags were defeated by the Fighting Illini of the University of Illinois 75-51 in their first NCAA Tournament game ever. Tony George found himself triple teamed all day and the Stags tried desperately to overcome the powerful Illini attack. The Illini Cheerleaders packed for another day and the Stag faithful returned to Connecticut disappointed with the outcome of the game but happy with the team's overall success.

Kevin Wolfthal

James D. Fitzpatrick

The Manor staff would like to thank Public Relations photographer Kevin Wolfthal and James D. Fitzpatrick, Assistant Dean, for their special contributions over the past several years. The Senior editors thank Kevin for providing needed photographs when we were short on material for publication. Mr. Fitzpatrick, our advisor, has always been supportive of our efforts and his dedication to Fairfield University student activities is greatly appreciated.

MANOR

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Dear Reader:

The Manor staff believes that this edition of the Manor captures the events, people and spirit of Fairfield University during the 1985-86 school year. We share our perspective of the year gone past and hope that it will serve as a rememberance in the future when the names, faces and memories of Fairfield become more distant.

I extend my thanks to Mr. Fitz, Gary Scarpa, Bea Staneko, the Mailroom Staff and to Luke Frazza for helping make my task easier. I am grateful to have worked with the entire yearbook staff over the past year, and I appreciate their volunteered time and effort which made this book possible. Special thanks to the senior editors Skip, Tricia, Meg and Diane, the ace photographer. Bill, Noreen and everyone else did a super job. Thank you and good luck next year.

Sincerely,

Tony Calianese
